Terms and Conditions

- Beginner course includes 10 hours in car lessons with Automatic transmission plus 20 hours class instruction, and 10 hours of home link study, a Ministry Driver License History, (stating beginner driver education completed) and our training vehicle for a Ministry G1 exit road test (to get your G2 license). Please confirm price of course by phoning our office.
- Payment in full for course is to be made in advance when signing the Registration form unless circumstances warrant other arrangements which have been approved by A Formula 1 Driving School administration. We are happy to accept either: cash, cheque or email bank transfers. Checks which are returned NSF are subject to a $75.00 administrative replacement charge in addition to providing us with a certified check or Money Order.
- In the event a student has reasonable grounds to interrupt the course, the student must complete the entire course (in-car and in-class) within 6 months of course commencement. A student may not delay either an in- car or an in-class lesson for more then 1 month apart. A delay of more than 1 month will result in the cancellation of this contract without refund. A student will then be obligated to pay for the remainder of the course in accordance with A Formula 1 Driving School current quoted rates. Any special course price offered for previous course will not apply.
- Should a student withdraw from the course after payment, there is NO refund. The student must provide dated written notice of withdrawal from the course. Course registration includes one G1 exit Road Test (to get G2 license). For additional G1 Road Tests, use of A Formula 1 Driving School vehicle for road test will cost $250.00, in addition to any Drivetest fees. This will include: pickup, use of car for the test, and drop off. A separate course is offered 1-year later for the G2 Exit Highway test to get the G license. Please contact us for pricing one year after your G2 license to obtain our best price package for your permanent G license.
- I certify that the statements in this document are accurate and consent to the release of any information contained herein to the Ministry of Transportation, Insurance Bureau of Canada, and the MTO Course Inspector.

By signing below, I agree to the terms and conditions as stated above. I also agree to allow my personal information to be shared with the MTO and their auditors.
